

CLERKENWELL DESIGN WEEK

19–21 MAY 2015

URBAN ALCHEMY

The Urban Botanist and Indoor Garden Design are proud to exhibit our joint collaboration 'Urban Alchemy' at Clerkenwell Design Week.

The Farmiloe Building installation uses The Urban Botanist's new supersize range of Aztec Terrariums to demonstrate how these wonderful pieces can bring any space to life.

Ian Drummond, Indoor Garden Design created the Urban Alchemy installation using vibrant, yet easy to care for plants.
